NTUE Regulations Governing Incentives for USR Article Publication

Adopted at the 1st Meeting of the Center for Social Responsibility Practice and Promotion, September 16, 2025

Article 1. Purpose

To raise awareness of and encourage participation in social responsibility issues among the University's faculty, staff, and students, the Center for Social Responsibility Practice and Promotion of National Taipei University of Education (the "University") has established these Regulations Governing Incentives for USR Article Publication (these "Regulations"). These Regulations aim to encourage units across the University to develop social responsibility initiatives and to help cultivate students' independent research skills.

Article 2. Eligibility and Submission Requirements

Each individual may apply once per calendar year. Topics should relate to social responsibility — for example, social engagement, community service, local/regional revitalization, rural/remote-area education, disaster prevention and relief, environmental and ecological conservation, cultural heritage preservation, sustainable development, or other related issues.

Eligible submissions are newspaper/magazine articles that present academic research findings or make a meaningful contribution to society. Each article should include an abstract, background and motivation, methodology (research or practical approach), and results. The total length should generally not exceed 10 pages; articles supported by photographs are preferred.

Article 3. Application

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. All faculty and students of the University are eligible to apply.

Article 4. Review Process

Submissions will be reviewed by experts in relevant fields invited by the University. The list of approved submissions will be posted on the University website, after which applicants may proceed with the award application.

Article 5. Award Amount

Approved newspaper/magazine articles related to social responsibility will each receive an award of NT$1,500.

Article 6. Funding Source

Funding for these Regulations is provided under related Ministry of Education project budgets.

NTUE University Social Responsibility (USR) Practice — Article Submission Award Application Form

Notes:

1. Eligible submissions are newspaper/magazine articles that present academic research findings or make a meaningful contribution to society. Each article must include an abstract, background and motivation, methodology (research or implementation), and results. The total length should generally not exceed 10 pages. Articles supported by photographic evidence are preferred.
2. When submitting this application form, please also attach the article itself and supporting documentation of its submission and/or publication.
3. Applications approved through expert review will be notified to the applicant by e-mail. The award application and disbursement process will follow "National Taipei University of Education Regulations Governing Incentives for USR Article Publication."

Application Date: YYYY/MM/DD

Applicant Name		Phone / Ext.
Affiliation / Department		Position / Year of Study
E-mail
Article Title
Type of Work	□ Academic Research Article □ Newspaper / Magazine Article
USR Topic(s) (Check all that apply)	□ Social Engagement □ Community Service □ Local/Regional Revitalization □ Rural/Remote-Area Education □ Disaster Prevention & Relief □ Environmental & Ecological Conservation □ Cultural Heritage Preservation □ Sustainable Development □ Other: _____
Co-authors	□ None □ Total ___ (please list the names of the other authors)
Advisor (if applicable)	Leave blank if not applicable.
Journal / Conference / Publishing Media	Name of the journal, conference, newspaper, magazine, or other publication	Submission / Publication Date(s)

Advisor's Signature	USR Center — Received